Looking for the perfect cocktail to complement your Easter brunch? Try grapefruit Mimosas, made with the juice of 8 large Ruby Red grapefruits and a bottle of your favorite Prosecco. Often compared to Champagne, Prosecco has its own unique flavor due to differences in grapes, production and aging, ensuring your taste buds a treat like none other!

Only 28 days til Cinco de Mayo -- don't get caught not knowing your tequilas! Making margaritas? You'll probably want to use a milder blanco or reposado. If shots or sipping are more your style, a smoother anejo that's been aged longer is your best bet.
